Psalm 112

Reader: Praise the Lord!

Happy are those who fear the Lord,
who greatly delight in his commandments.

All: Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

Reader: Wealth and riches are in their houses,
and their righteousness endures forever.

All: They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright;
they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.

Reader: It is well with those who deal generously and lend,
who conduct their affairs with justice.

All: For the righteous will never be moved;
they will be remembered forever.

Reader: They are not afraid of evil tidings;
their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord.

All: Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid;
in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

Reader: They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor;
their righteousness endures forever;
their horn is exalted in honor.

All: The wicked see it and are angry;
they gnash their teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

Luke 14:1-14

14 On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. ² Just then, in front of him, there was a man who had dropsy. ³ And Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, "Is it lawful to cure people on the sabbath, or not?" ⁴ But they were silent. So Jesus took him and healed him, and sent him away. ⁵ Then he said to them, "If one of you has a child or an ox that has fallen into a well, will you not immediately pull it out on a sabbath day?" ⁶ And they could not reply to this. ⁷ When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. ⁸ "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; ⁹ and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. ¹⁰ But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹ For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹² He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. ¹³ But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ¹⁴ And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."
