Please Read Responsively: Psalm 103:1-8

L: Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless God's holy name.

ALL: Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all God's benefits—

L: who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases;

ALL: who redeems your life from the grave and crowns you with steadfast love and mercy;

L: who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like an eagle's.

ALL: O LORD, you provide vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

L: You made known your ways to Moses and your works to the children of Israel.

ALL: LORD, you are full of compassion and mercy, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

A Reading of the Gospel of Luke 13:10-17

ALL: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus heals a woman on the sabbath, offering her a new beginning for her life. When challenged by a narrow reading of the sabbath command, Jesus responds by expanding "sabbath work" to include setting people free from bondage.

¹⁰Now [Jesus] was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. ¹¹And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." ¹³When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. ¹⁴But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." ¹⁵But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? ¹⁶And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" ¹⁷When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

L: This is the Word of the Lord All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Community Meal this Wednesday: Potluck dinner-bring something to share.
