Readings for August 5, 2018

Psalm 78:23-29

Reader: Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;

All: he rained down on them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.

Reader: Mortals ate of the bread of angels;
he sent them food in abundance.

All: He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens,
and by his power he led out the south wind;

Reader: he rained flesh upon them like dust,
winged birds like the sand of the seas;

All: he let them fall within their camp,
all around their dwellings.

Reader: And they ate and were well filled,

All: for he gave them what they craved.

Ephesians 4:1-16 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

4 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³ making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

⁷ But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. ⁸ Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people."

⁹ (When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended [\[a\]](#) into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰ He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) ¹¹ The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, ¹² to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³ until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. ¹⁴ We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. ¹⁵ But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, ¹⁶ from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.
