Psalm 81:1-8

Reader: Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.

All: Raise a song, sound the tambourine,
the sweet lyre with the harp.

Reader: Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
at the full moon, on our festal day.

All: For it is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Reader: He made it a decree in Joseph,
when he went out over the land of Egypt.

All: I hear a voice I had not known:
“I relieved your shoulder of the burden;
your hands were freed from the basket.

Reader: In distress you called, and I rescued you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

All: Hear, O my people, while I admonish you;
O Israel, if you would but listen to me!

Mark 2:23-3:6

²³ One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. ²⁴ The Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?” ²⁵ And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? ²⁶ He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.” ²⁷ Then he said to them, “The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; ²⁸ so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.”

3 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. ² They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. ³ And he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come forward.” ⁴ Then he said to them, “Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. ⁵ He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶ The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Questions to ponder from today's sermon...

How do we remember the Sabbath Day?

How do we keep the Sabbath holy?
