Psalm 63:1-8

L: O God, you are my God, I seek you, my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

A: <sup>2</sup>So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.

L: <sup>3</sup>Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you.

A: <sup>4</sup>So I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands and call on your name.

L: <sup>5</sup>My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast, and my mouth praises you with joyful lips

A: <sup>6</sup>when I think of you on my bed, and meditate on you I n the watches of the night;

L: <sup>7</sup>for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.

A: <sup>8</sup>My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.

Luke 13:1-9

"At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? <sup>3</sup>No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them — do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did." <sup>6</sup>Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup>So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' <sup>8</sup>He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. <sup>9</sup>If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"
