PRELUDE:

GATHERING SONG: ELW 422 “For All the Saints” (verses 1-4)

For All the Saints

- 1 For all the saints who from their labors rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 3 Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

ANNOUNCEMENTS/WELCOME

CONFESSIONS/FORGIVENESS

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Have mercy on us, O God.

We confess that we have sinned against you
and against our neighbor.

We have built walls instead of tables
and have turned away the stranger.

We have sought glory for ourselves
and have treasured that which does not satisfy.

Help us to love as you love,
to welcome those you send,
and to treasure mercy and justice.

Turn us from our ways to your ways,
and free us to serve those in need. Amen.

God, who makes all things new,
forgives your sins for Jesus' sake
and remembers them no more.

Lift up your heads and your hearts.

Yours is the kingdom of God.

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

WORD:

PSALM: Psalm 24

- R The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it,
the world and those who dwell therein.
- A For the Lord has founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.
- R Who may ascend the mountain of the Lord,
and who may stand in God's holy place?
- A Those of innocent hands and purity of heart,
who do not swear on God's being, nor do they pledge by what is false.
- R They shall receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of their salvation.
- A Such is the generation of those who seek you, O Lord,
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- R Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O ever lasting doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
- A Who is this King of glory?
The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle!
- R Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
- A Who is this King of glory?
Truly, the Lord of hosts is the King of glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION ELW p. 151 (please stand as you are able)

GOSPEL: John 11:32-44

R: The holy gospel according to John chapter 11

A: Glory to you, O Lord

Through the raising of Lazarus, Jesus offers the world a vision of the life to come, when death and weeping will be no more.

32When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” 33When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. 34He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” 35Jesus began to weep. 36So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” 37But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

38Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” 40Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” 41So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. 42I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” 43When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” 44The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

All Saints' Day celebration has a long history in the worship life of the Christian Church. It began as a commemoration of the martyrs who had died for the faith, and it has since become a day when we honor and remember those who, in death, have joined the Church Triumphant, as well as the faithful saints of the present who serve Jesus Christ. Martin Luther held that all Christians are simultaneously sinner and saint--a sinner because of our rebellious nature, but a saint because of salvation in Jesus.

Today, by reading their names and by ringing a bell and lighting a candle for each, we remember those of our congregation who have died during the past year. Afterward, there will be an opportunity for anyone in the congregation to come forward to light a candle in memory of someone dear to them. This will proceed spontaneously and at will; there will be no ushers directing you.

Following the lighting of the candles, we proclaim the message of hope and life eternal through Jesus Christ. May all the saints, past and present, endure forever in God's grace!

The Liturgy of Remembrance

Announcement of Comfort and Hope (Please stand as you are able)

P: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. God comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C: Thanks be to God!

P: When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we, too, might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

C: Thanks be to God!

P: Today, we remember our loved ones by first giving thanks to God for all the saints of our lives and the witness they have shared with us even as we continue to walk the journey of faith and make our way to the glory that God is preparing for all of us.

Let us pray:

God of all creation,
we praise you for all your servants who have witnessed to your truth,
who have shown us your love, who have inspired us to have hope.
By their example of faith, hope, and love, remind us of your calling to join in making your new creation real in this world and the next.

We remember David Johnson... Anne Hauge... Joyce Scharpen... Elaine Mellin... Jim Johnson... Lynn Perrin... Carol Anderson... Robert Stanius... Darius Anderson... Colleen Johnson... Philip Lundeen... and Ruth Maples... along with all those we now bring forward through the lighting of candles.

You are invited to come to one of the candle lighting stations to remember your loved ones. After lighting one candle, please return to your seat in silence and reflection.

P: Gracious, heavenly Father. we send this light to you in remembrance of our loved ones who now rest in your eternal care. Strengthen those of us who remain; bring peace to those who grieve; and sustain us in our sorrow. In your holy name, we pray.
Amen.

These are our saints that we remember today:

Anne Hauge

Joyce Scharpen

Elaine Mellin

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.
