Please Read Responsively: Psalm 111

L: Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

ALL: Great are your works, O LORD, pondered by all who delight in them.

L: Majesty and splendor mark your deeds, and your righteousness endures forever.

ALL: You cause your wonders to be remembered; you are gracious and full of compassion.

L: You give food to those who fear you, remembering forever your covenant.

ALL: You have shown your people the power of your works in giving them the lands of the nations.

L: The works of your hands are faithfulness and justice; all of your precepts are sure.

ALL: They stand fast forever and ever, because they are done in truth and equity.

L: You sent redemption to your people and commanded your covenant forever; holy and awesome is your name.

ALL: The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all who practice this have a good understanding. God's praise endures forever.

L: The Gospel reading is: Luke 17:11-19

ALL: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus' mission includes making the unclean clean again. Unexpectedly, a cleansed Samaritan leper becomes a model for those who would praise and worship God and give thanks for God's mercy.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

R: This is the Word of the Lord

All: Praise to you, O Christ.
