Psalm 90:12-17

Reader: So teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart.

All: Turn, O Lord! How long? Have compassion on your servants!

Reader: Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

All: Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil.

Reader: Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.

All: Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper us for the work of our hands – O prosper the work of our hands!

Mark 10: 17-31

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and mother.’ He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age – houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions – and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

WEDNESDAY COMMUNITY MEAL AT 5:15 pm. This week's meal is PIZZA!

Suggested price is $5.00/individual $20.00/family. All ARE welcome! Come for dinner, stay for worship at 6!

We started with three spaghetti dinners a year for seven years, then did two a year for two years, then decided on one a year in 2017-2018. These past 11 years have been a lot of fun with great workers and many wonderful volunteers that helped when called on. At this time with much prayer and meditation, I have decided to give up this position. This is an opportunity for someone else to make it their own way with new ideas and lots of energy! Thanks to everyone with blessings to all. Sincerely, Loretta Fornberg

BIBLE STUDY The book study group that meets on Tuesday at 10 am will begin a new book on October 23rd. "If God is Good," by Randy Alcorn. Pastor Bob will introduce the topic of Faith in the Midst of Suffering and Evil on Tuesday, October 16th. All are welcome!!

Stewardship Team Your Stewardship Team is offering the pine seedlings on the tables in the fellowship hall to anyone who would like to plant them. They need to go in the ground soon, before the freeze. If you care to make a small donation for trees, please place your offering in the gratitude basket on the stewardship table. There are more trees available, compliments of Gerald and Connie Anderson. Any donations would help offset postage for our stewardship appeal. Thank you! If anyone has a Thrivent grant available, we would appreciate you sharing it with us for our Sundaes on Thank You Sunday.
