Psalm 46

Reader: God is our refuge and strength,
a very present^[a] help in trouble.

All: Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;

Reader: though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult.

All: There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

Reader: God is in the midst of the city;^[b] it shall not be moved;
God will help it when the morning dawns.

All: The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

Reader: The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

All: Come, behold the works of the Lord;
see what desolations he has brought on the earth.

Reader: He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

All: "Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth."

Reader: The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

John 8:31-36

31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; 32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." 33 They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. 35 The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. 36 So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.
