Psalm 8

Reader: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: You have set your glory above the heavens.

Reader: Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have found a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

All: When I look at your heavens, and the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established,

Reader: What are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?

All: Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honor.

Reader: You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet,

All: All sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

Reader: the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

All: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

Mark 10: 2-16

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her." But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.' Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.
