Psalm 111

Reader: Praise the Lord!
I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

All: Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who delight in them.

Reader: Full of honor and majesty is his work,
and his righteousness endures forever.

All: He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds;
the Lord is gracious and merciful.

Reader: He provides food for those who fear him;
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

All: He has shown his people the power of his works,
in giving them the heritage of the nations.

Reader: The works of his hands are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy.

All: They are established forever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and Uprightness.

Reader: He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is his name.

All: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
His praise endures forever.

Luke 17:1-19

17 Jesus said to his disciples, “Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to anyone by whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It would be better for you if a millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea than for you to cause one of these little ones to stumble. <sup>3</sup> Be on your guard! If another disciple sins, you must rebuke the offender, and if there is repentance, you must forgive. <sup>4</sup> And if the same person sins against you seven times a day, and turns back to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive.”

<sup>5</sup> The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” <sup>6</sup> The Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. <sup>7</sup> “Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here at once and take your place at the table’? <sup>8</sup> Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’? <sup>9</sup> Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? <sup>10</sup> So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’”

<sup>11</sup> On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, <sup>13</sup> they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” <sup>14</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. <sup>15</sup> Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup> He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup> Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? <sup>18</sup> Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” <sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”
